

Sustainable Living Week

9–20 September

A PROJECT OF

Rotary
Club of Orange

2017

Saturday, 9 September	PRIMARY SCHOOLS SUSTAINABLE COOKING COMPETITION 9.30 to 11.30am in the Naylor Pavilion at Orange Showground at Orange Farmers Market Teams of 4 students from local primary schools cook a set of supplied local ingredients into two dishes to be judged for their taste, presentation, teamwork and ideas on keeping cooking waste to a minimum. Sponsored by the Rotary Club of Orange, Agrestic Grocer, TAFE Western Contact John Mills 0429 323 464.
Saturday, 9 September	ENVIRONMENTALLY CONCERNED CITIZENS OF ORANGE (ECCO) DISPLAY 8.00am to 12.30pm in the Naylor Pavilion at Orange Showground at Orange Farmers Market For the answers to all your questions about sustainable living in Orange, visit the Environmentally Concerned Citizens of Orange (ECCO) stall at the Farmers Market. For more information, contact Nick King on 0490 087 424.
Saturday, 9 September	THE FUTURE OF BATTERY STORAGE AND SOLAR TECHNOLOGIES FOR DOMESTIC AND COMMERCIAL USE 2.00pm at the TAFE Greenskills building, Forest Road, Orange Free presentation by local experts on solar and battery technology and application Contact Robert Biviano, Central West Solar, 0414 986 830 or Geoff Bargwanna 0418 667 570.
Saturday, 16 September	MASTER BUILDERS ASSOCIATION SUSTAINABLE BUILDING Meet at 12.45pm at the Orange Visitor Information Centre for a bus to each builder or travel independently Free information sessions at builders' premises Banksia Building, 9 Ralston Drive Orange: Mick Banks with information on energy efficiency in building, including insulation advice Kensington Homes, 150 Diamond Drive, Orange: Alex Stringer with information on solar panels and glazing Sessions at each builder 1.00pm and 2.00pm Sponsored by the Master Builders Association Central West, Banksia Building and Kensington Homes Contact Len Banks 0428 459 117.

Sunday, 17 September	SUSTAINABLE HOUSE DAY 10.00am to 4.00pm Organised by the Alternative Technologies Association (ATA) Open house in Orange. To register to visit the ATA Sustainable House in Orange, go to the ATA website www.sustainablehouseday.com
Monday, 18 September	SENERGY 10.30am to 12.30pm at the Blue Room, Orange City Bowling Club, Warrendine Street, Orange Information for seniors about energy costs and how they can be reduced by a range of sustainable strategies, sponsored by ECCO, Sparktank and Skillset Environment Contact Nick King 0490 087 424.
Wednesday, 20 September	SCHOOLS WASTE REDUCTION VIDEO COMPETITION 5.00pm at Orange City Library Announcement and presentation of the prize winners, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Orange Contact John Mills 0429 323 464.
Monday to Wednesday, 18 to 20 September	CSIRO SCIENCE WORKSHOPS FOR SCHOOLS 9.00am to 3.00pm at PCYC, Byng Street, Orange Workshops on weather, climate and energy generation Sponsored by the Rotary Club of Orange, CSIRO and PCYC Contact John Mills 0429 323 464.
	CHOOK TRACTOR RAFFLE Win a movable chook cage, 2 laying hens and a bag of feed with the new Australian Monopoly game as second and third prizes. Tickets available at Orange Farmers' Market and outside K-Mart Drawn on 18 September Contact John Templeman 0401 701 272.

MAJOR PARTNERS:

